

Report on National Constitution Day, 26th November 2024

The Department of Political Science at Government College Theog observed National Constitution Day on 26th November 2024 with great enthusiasm and participation. The event was graced by the Chief Guest, Dr. Bhupender Singh Thakur, Principal of Government College Theog, who emphasized the significance of the Constitution in shaping the democratic framework of India.

The celebration featured a series of engaging activities, aiming to foster awareness and understanding of the Constitution among students. Two distinguished members of the Bar Association of Theog were invited as special speakers. They delivered insightful lectures on the importance of law in society and the pivotal role the Constitution plays in safeguarding justice and upholding the rule of law.

The event also included various cultural and educational activities to engage the students:

1. Declamation Contest: Students participated in an eloquent declamation contest, showcasing their knowledge of the Constitution and articulating their thoughts on its relevance in modern times.
2. Poster Making: Creative students designed informative and visually striking posters, highlighting key features of the Constitution and its impact on national governance and citizens' rights.
3. Slogan Writing: The slogan writing activity allowed students to express their understanding of the Constitution through catchy and thought-provoking slogans that conveyed its importance.
4. Skit - Constitution: Then and Now: A skit was performed by students, reflecting on the journey of the Indian Constitution from its adoption in 1950 to the present day, emphasizing how it has evolved in response to changing social, political, and economic landscapes.

The event was attended by 85 enthusiastic students who actively participated in all the activities, making the day a vibrant and enriching experience. The celebrations concluded with the Principal's address, where Dr. Bhupender Singh Thakur commended the students for their active involvement and encouraged them to understand and uphold the values enshrined in the Constitution.

The observance of National Constitution Day proved to be an educational and memorable event, instilling a deeper understanding of the Constitution's relevance and the responsibilities of every citizen in a democratic society.

Department of Political Science

Principal

Name of Teacher Basant lal

Govt. College Theog