

Discussion on Union Budget 2024-25 5th August 2024

The discussion on Union Budget 2024-25 was held on August 5, 2024, with 50 students participating in the presence of NSS program officers Dr. Vikas Nathan and Ms. Chetna Negi.

The discussion began with Dr. Nathan giving a brief overview of the key points of the Union Budget. He highlighted the government's focus on infrastructure development, rural development, and social welfare schemes. He also discussed the impact of the budget on various sectors of the economy, such as agriculture, industry, and services.

Ms. Chetna Negi then led a discussion on the implications of the budget for students. She discussed the government's plans for education, including the expansion of higher education and the introduction of new vocational training programs. She also highlighted the opportunities for students to participate in government-funded internships and research projects.

The students were very engaged in the discussion, and they raised several questions and concerns about the budget. Some of the topics that were discussed included:

- * The impact of the budget on unemployment
- * The government's plans for addressing the rising cost of living
- * The effectiveness of the government's social welfare schemes
- * The challenges facing the Indian economy

Dr. Nathan and Ms. Negi were able to provide informative and insightful answers to the students' questions. They also encouraged the students to think critically about the budget and to form their own opinions about its merits and demerits.

The discussion concluded with a vote of thanks to Dr. Nathan and Ms. Negi for their contributions. The students also expressed their appreciation for the opportunity to participate in such a meaningful event.

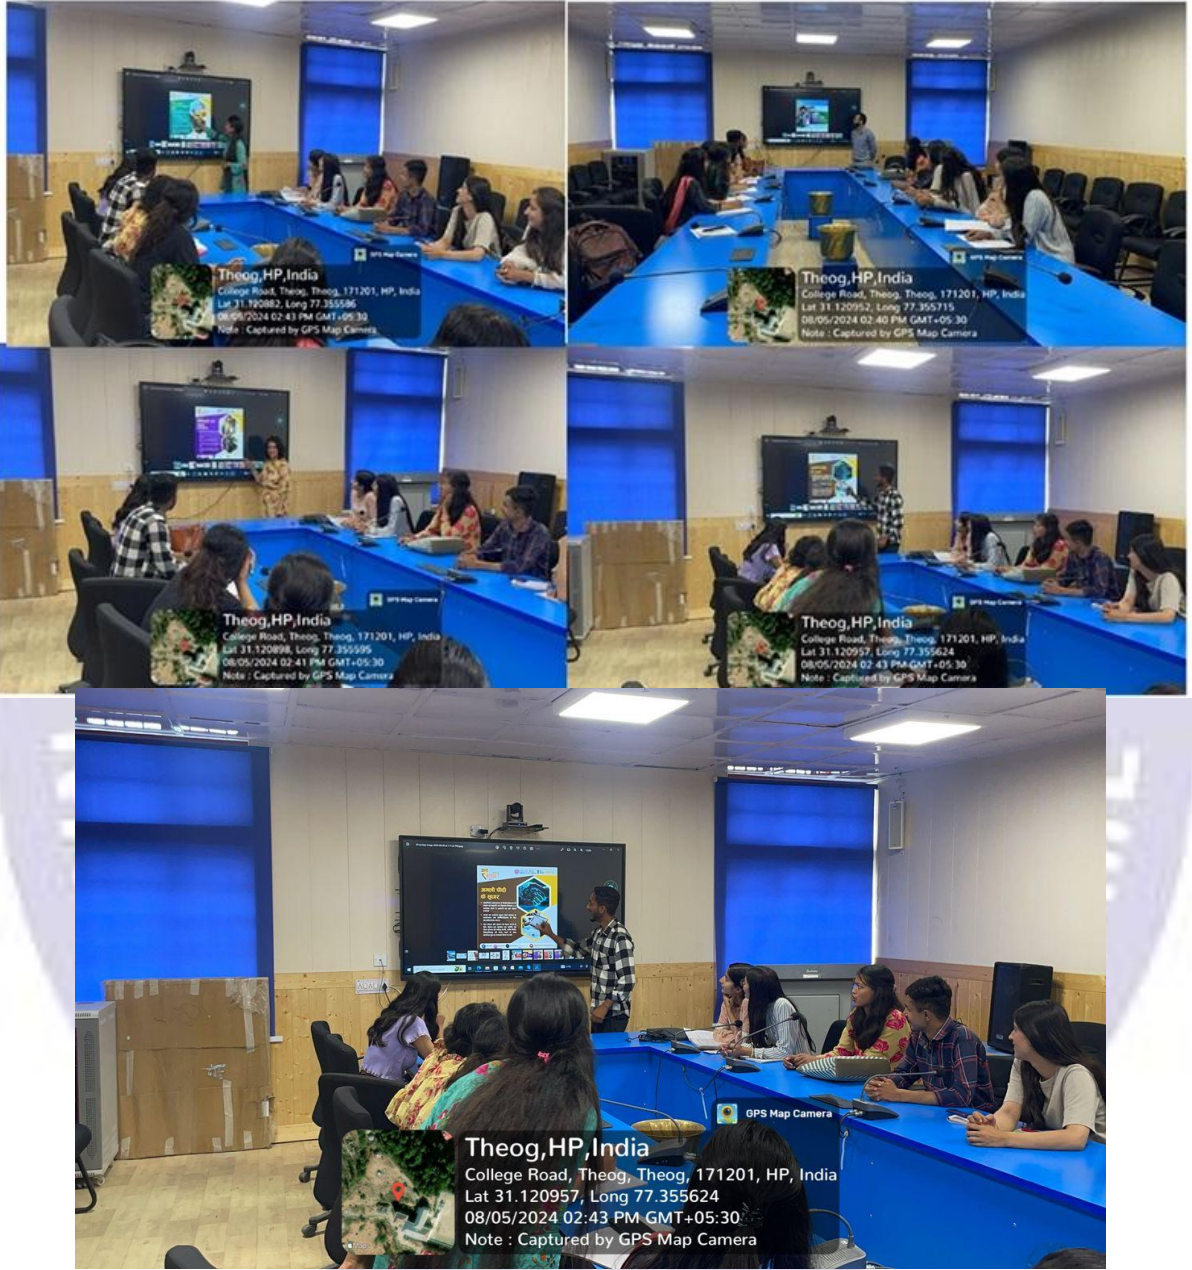

Overall, the discussion on Union Budget 2024-25 was a success. It was a valuable opportunity for the students to learn more about the budget and its implications for their lives. It also helped to develop a sense of civic engagement and responsibility among the students.
