NCC Day Celebration at Government College Theog

Government College Theog celebrated NCC Day with great zeal and patriotic fervor on 23rd November 2024. The event, organized to honor the National Cadet Corps (NCC) and its role in nurturing discipline, leadership, and service among students, was attended by faculty, staff, and cadets. The esteemed principal, Dr. Bhupinder Singh Thakur, graced the occasion as the chief guest.

The program began with a welcome address by the NCC unit in-charge, who highlighted the significance of NCC Day and its impact on youth development. This was followed by a thought-provoking skit performed by NCC cadets, illustrating the corps' contributions to national unity and social service. A senior cadet then delivered an insightful speech, shedding light on the history and purpose of NCC Day, emphasizing its role in shaping responsible citizens.

The cultural segment of the event featured vibrant performances, including patriotic dances and songs that ignited a sense of pride and love for the nation. Dr. Bhupinder Singh Thakur, in his keynote address, applauded the cadets' dedication and underscored the importance of NCC in instilling values like discipline, teamwork, and selfless service. He urged students to actively engage in NCC activities to cultivate leadership skills and contribute to societal welfare.

The celebration concluded with a heartfelt vote of thanks by Prof. Chandresh Kumar, the caretaker officer, who expressed gratitude to the chief guest, faculty, and students for their enthusiastic participation. He also commended the organizing team and cadets for their meticulous efforts in ensuring the event's success.

Overall, the NCC Day celebration at Government College Theog was a memorable and inspiring occasion. It reinforced the ideals of unity, patriotism, and civic responsibility among students, reaffirming the NCC's vital role in molding youth into future leaders of the nation.
