Report on Participation of NSS Volunteer Ashutosh in National Integration Camp

Date: 5th to 11th February 2025

Venue: Chandigarh University, SAS Nagar, Mohali, Punjab

Participant: NSS Volunteer Ashutosh

The National Integration Camp (NIC) is an initiative by the National Service Scheme (NSS) to promote unity, national integration, and cultural exchange among students from different regions of the country. The camp, held at Chandigarh University from 5th to 11th February 2025, saw the active participation of NSS volunteer Ashutosh, representing his institution with dedication and enthusiasm.

Throughout the seven-day camp, Ashutosh actively engaged in various activities, including:

1. Inaugural Ceremony: Attended the grand opening, where dignitaries emphasized the significance of national integration.
2. Community Service: Participated in cleanliness drives, tree plantation, and awareness campaigns on social issues.
3. Workshops and Seminars: Attended sessions on leadership, youth empowerment, and social responsibilities conducted by eminent speakers.
4. Cultural Exchange Program: Represented his state through traditional attire, dance, and folk music, fostering cross-cultural interaction. He actively participated in cultural performances, including folk dance and singing competitions, showcasing the rich heritage of his region. Additionally, he collaborated with volunteers from different states to perform a fusion dance, symbolizing unity in diversity.
5. Group Discussions and Debates: Contributed valuable insights on national integration, sustainable development, and communal harmony.
6. Adventure and Physical Activities: Took part in fitness drills, yoga sessions, and team-building exercises.
7. Valedictory Ceremony: Received a certificate of appreciation for his active involvement and outstanding contribution to the camp.
