One-Week Capacity Building Workshop on
Speak Smart: Enhancing Soft Skills through Phonetics
Day 1 Report (10 November 2025)
Theme: Understanding the Power of Communication

The inaugural day of the one-week capacity building workshop on “Speak Smart: Enhancing Soft Skills through Phonetics” was held at Government Degree College, Theog (H.P.). The workshop was organized by the Department of English and the Soft Skill Society with the aim of enhancing communication competence among students and faculty through the study of phonetics and soft skills.

The programme began with a warm opening and welcome by the anchor, setting a positive tone for the event. This was followed by the lighting of the lamp ceremony, symbolizing the dispelling of ignorance and the enlightenment of knowledge. The lamp was lit by the Principal, the resource person, and faculty coordinators.

The Welcome Address was delivered by Dr. Pooja Dulta, Coordinator, who extended her heartfelt greetings to all dignitaries, participants, and attendees. She highlighted the importance of soft skills and communication in academic as well as professional growth.

The Inaugural Address was delivered by Dr. Bhupinder Singh Thakur, Principal of the college. In his address, he emphasized the relevance of effective communication in the modern world and encouraged participants to make the most of this workshop to refine their linguistic and interpersonal abilities.

Following this, Dr. Raksha Kalta, Convenor of the workshop, introduced the Resource Person, Dr. Anuja Sharma, Associate Professor (Retd.), St. Bede’s College, Shimla. Dr. Kalta spoke briefly about Dr. Sharma’s academic contributions and expertise in the field of language and soft skills.

Dr. Anuja Sharma then delivered the Inaugural Lecture on the day’s theme—“Understanding the Power of Communication.” She elaborated on how phonetics can play a crucial role in improving pronunciation, clarity, and confidence in speech. She also discussed the importance of non-verbal communication and active listening as essential components of effective interaction. The lecture was highly engaging and interactive, encouraging participants to reflect on their communication habits.

The Vote of Thanks was proposed by Dr. Raksha Kalta, who expressed gratitude to the Principal, resource person, coordinators, and all participants for their support and active participation in making the inaugural session a success.

The day concluded with an interactive session, during which participants engaged in discussions and practical exercises related to communication and phonetics. The session ended on an enthusiastic note, with participants looking forward to the upcoming sessions of the workshop.

Report on Day 2 of the Workshop

Date: 11 November 2025

Theme: Introduction to Phonetics

Resource Person: Dr. Pooja Dulta, Assistant Professor of English

The second day of the one-week capacity-building workshop “Speak Smart: Enhancing Soft Skills through Phonetics” was conducted on 11th November 2025 under the guidance of Dr. Pooja Dulta, Assistant Professor of English and Workshop Co-ordinator. The session focused on the theme “Introduction to Phonetics. Dr. Dulta began the session by highlighting the importance of phonetics in effective communication and language learning. She explained how phonetics serves as the scientific study of speech sounds, helping individuals to understand and produce language accurately and clearly. The participants were introduced to the International Phonetic Alphabet (IPA) and its significance in representing the sounds of English objectively. Through engaging examples and interactive discussions, Dr. Dulta demonstrated the differences between phonemes, phones, and elaborated on how these elements contribute to intelligibility and fluency in speech. She also discussed common pronunciation challenges faced by learners and offered practical strategies to overcome them. The session was highly informative and participatory, encouraging attendees to analyze their own speech patterns. Dr. Dulta emphasized that mastering phonetics not only refines pronunciation but also enhances overall soft skills by improving clarity, confidence, and effectiveness in verbal communication. The day concluded with a Q&A session where participants actively shared their queries and experiences. The insightful explanations by Dr. Dulta made the learning process both accessible and enjoyable.

Theme: Consonants- Place and Manner of Articulation

Resource Person: Dr. Raksha Kalta, Assistant Professor of English

The third day of the one-week capacity-building workshop “Speak Smart: Enhancing Soft Skills through Phonetics” was conducted on 12th November 2025 and the resource person for the day was Dr. Raksha Kalta, Assistant Professor of English, Govt. College Theog. The theme for the third day of the workshop was “Consonants- Place and Manner of Articulation”. In congruence with the objective of the workshop, the resource person began the session by asserting the need to enhance communication and soft skills among students in the present time. She began her lecture with an introduction to Phonetics – highlighting how it is significant in achieving clarity and precision in spoken communication. The speaker then elaborated on the Speech Mechanism explaining how speech sounds are produced by the coordinated functioning of respiratory, articulatory, and phonatory systems. The place of articulation- focusing on bilabial, dental, alveolar, palatal, velar and glottal sounds -and the manner of articulation such as fricatives, affricates, nasal, laterals and approximates were discussed in detail with examples and audio-visual demonstrations. The lecture concluded with an interactive session where participants' doubts were clarified and also an exercise was given to them to identify and transcribe consonant sounds using phonetic symbols. The session was highly informative and engaging

Report- Day 4

Date: 13 November 2025

On Day 4 of the ongoing One-Week Capacity Building Workshop titled “Speak Smart: Enhancing Soft Skills Through Phonetics,” a highly engaging and informative session was conducted by Ms. Chetna Negi, Assistant Professor of English.

The session, held in Room No. 10 from 11:20 AM to 12:30 PM, was attended by over 100 enthusiastic students. Ms. Negi delivered an insightful lecture on the topic “Vowels and Diphthongs.”

During the session, students were acquainted to:

- The concept of vowel sounds
- Monophthongs and their classifications
- Diphthongs and their articulation
- Relevant phonetic diagrams for better understanding of sound production

The session was highly interactive, with students actively participating and clarifying their doubts. The comprehensive explanation provided by the resource person helped students gain clarity on core phonetic concepts essential for effective communication.

Overall, it was a fruitful and enriching session, contributing immensely to the learning outcomes of the workshop.

Report- Day 6

Date: 15th November 2025

On Saturday, 15th November 2025, a structured and interactive session was conducted as part of the SpeakSmart workshop. The session aimed to reinforce the key phonetics concepts covered earlier, including vowel and consonant sounds, monophthongs, diphthongs, stress, and intonation.

The session began with a brief recap, followed by a series of guided activities. Students engaged in pronunciation drills, sound identification exercises, and short listening tasks to apply their understanding of speech sounds. Interactive peer-based activities further helped students recognise correct articulation, stress patterns, and intonation variations.

These exercises were designed both to strengthen conceptual clarity and to assess the learning outcomes of the workshop. Students participated actively and demonstrated improved confidence and accuracy in their pronunciation. Overall, the session was systematic, outcome-oriented, and contributed significantly to achieving the objectives of the SpeakSmart workshop.

REPORT ON THE VALEDICTORY FUNCTION

One-Week Capacity Building Workshop

“Speak Smart: Enhancing Soft Skills through Phonetics”

Government Degree College, Theog (H.P.)

17 November 2025

The Department of English and the Soft Skill Society of Government Degree College, Theog, successfully conducted the valedictory programme of the One-Week Capacity Building Workshop titled “Speak Smart: Enhancing Soft Skills through Phonetics” on 17 November 2025 at 11:50 AM. The programme commenced with a warm welcome of the Chief Guest, followed by the Welcome Address, setting a positive and enthusiastic tone for the event.

The Resource Person Session was delivered by Dr. Shiwani Khatri, Associate Professor, GDC Sanjauli. She engaged the participants with an insightful talk on public speaking and effective presentation skills. Her session emphasized clarity of speech, confidence, vocal modulation, and the structured delivery of ideas—skills essential for academic and professional excellence. A series of PPT presentations by student participants showcased their learning and creativity. The presentations included themes such as Teamwork by Muskaan, Four Conditions for Marriage (Molu Ram Thakur) by Arpita, Folk Literature by Archana, Gambhari Devi by Kritika Sharma, and Those That Are Not Sports by Krishan Singh. A poetry recitation by Sneha added a creative and expressive touch to the event.

The participants then performed a short play on “Tenses”, demonstrating their understanding of grammar through an interactive and engaging format. This was followed by the Presentation of the Seven-Day Workshop Report by Dr. Shradha Shandil, who highlighted the objectives, activities, and achievements of the workshop. The Chief Guest, Dr. Bhupinder Singh Thakur, Principal of GDC Theog, delivered an inspiring address. He appreciated the efforts of the organising committee, faculty members, and students. In his speech, he emphasized the importance of soft skills, phonetics, and effective communication in professional and personal development. The event concluded with the Vote of Thanks presented by Raksha Kalta, who expressed gratitude to the Chief Guest, resource person, faculty members, participants, and all those who contributed to the success of the workshop. Finally, certificate distribution, group photograph, and refreshments marked the close of the valedictory ceremony, leaving participants enriched and motivated.
