Report on "Joint Tree Plantation Drive" – 22-08-2025

Venues: Government Degree College Campus & New Bus Stand, Theog Organized By: NCC and NSS Units, GDC Theog Date: August 22, 2025

Introduction

In a concerted effort to promote environmental sustainability and increase green cover, the NCC (National Cadet Corps) and NSS (National Service Scheme) units of Government Degree College (GDC), Theog, organized a collaborative Tree Plantation Drive on August 22, 2025.

Inauguration at College Campus

The event commenced within the college premises. The plantation drive was formally inaugurated by the Principal, Dr. Bhupinder Singh Thakur, who planted the first sapling in the college campus. He addressed the students, highlighting the urgent need for afforestation to combat climate change and maintain the ecological balance of the region.

Plantation at New Bus Stand

Following the inauguration, the drive moved to the designated public site near the New Bus Stand, Theog. The activity was led by the faculty in-charge:

- Prof. Chandresh Kumar (NCC Caretaker Officer)
- Dr. Vikas Nathan (NSS Programme Officer)
- Dr. Babita Thakur (NSS Programme Officer)

Accompanied by a motivated team of NCC cadets and NSS volunteers, the faculty members actively participated in the drive.

Outcome

The team successfully planted a total of 100 saplings of various indigenous species in the area surrounding the bus stand. The students worked with dedication to dig pits and ensure the saplings were planted securely, contributing significantly to the beautification and environmental health of the town's entry point.

Conclusion

The event was a resounding success, fostering a spirit of teamwork and environmental stewardship among the students. The collaborative effort of the NCC and NSS units, guided by their officers, set a positive example for the community.
