Report on NSS Meeting Held in the NSS Room at Government College Theog

A meeting of the National Service Scheme (NSS) Unit was held on 05th August 2025 in the NSS Room of Government College Theog. The meeting was attended by NSS volunteers and Programme Officers.

At the outset, Dr. Vikas Nathan formally introduced the newly appointed Programme Officer, Dr. Bavita Thakur, to the volunteers. The volunteers warmly welcomed her and expressed their enthusiasm to work under her guidance.

During the meeting, an interactive session on the role of NSS in the life of a volunteer and in society was conducted. Both Programme Officers shared their valuable insights on how NSS activities help in developing leadership qualities, social responsibility, discipline, and a spirit of community service among students. They emphasized that NSS provides a meaningful platform for youth to contribute positively to society while shaping their own personality and character. Furthermore, the Programme Officers discussed and planned various activities for the academic session 2025–26. The proposed activities included community outreach programmes, awareness campaigns, cleanliness drives, plantation activities, and participation in special camps. The session was attended by 30 volunteers.

The meeting concluded on a positive note with a vote of thanks to all the volunteers for their active participation and commitment toward NSS activities.
